

KENMORE SQUARE

One of the neighborhood's most famous landmarks is the CITGO sign located in Kenmore Square. Erected in 1965 to replace an existing CITGO ad, the sign has become a well-known feature in the Boston skyline. The state turned it off in 1979 and when CITGO attempted to take the sign down in 1983, the residents of Boston came together and it still stands today.
